e-italiani.com was born in late 2003 with the aim of being a focal point of the Italian community: a place where businesses can learn about other businesses; a place where the Australian community can find out about local activities, restaurants, fashion shops and events such as Italian Food Festival or the Italian Film Festival.

Listed in more than thirty search engines and partner with the Italian Associates, e-italiani.com is a portal to consider for your business to be on.

The managing director, Angelo Italiani, born in Italy, came to Australia in 1991 and saw that the Italian community was very well loved and embraced by Australia. However, Angelo realised there was nowhere for these two cultures to relate, or for Australia to see the great effort that the Italian community have put together in the last 50 years. So

Angelo worked very hard to create
